August 24, 1959.

Col. Stanley Grogan,
Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Colonel Grogan:

I want you to know how much I appreciated your help and co-operation in doing a recent Sunday feature story on Paul Borel.

I trust I did justice to both Paul and the agency.

I went to Russia with the Vice-President, then stayed in Moscow for a week after Nixon left for Poland. After leaving Moscow I went to Berlin for a week.

The trip to Russia was a little on the rugged side, but a tremendous experience.

Again, Colonel, many thanks for everything.

Best personal regards,

John R. Cauley
